

The No-Nonsense Way to Get Rich

Commodities are a cherished little secret you can use to boost your profits whenever the stock market is struggling. But you can only take advantage of this secret if you have the knowledge -- along with some fundamental money-management techniques -- to apply this knowledge.

"I am so very happy to have found you! Your service is superb! Thanks for your due diligence!"

-- R. Hunt (subscriber)

That's where I can help you...

But first, let me say once again that there's never been a better time to profit from natural resources. Why? Because this is a volatile stock market. It's up one day... and back down the next. Not only that, but you're also faced with crooked accountants, insider trading scandals and all the other garbage associated with Wall Street. How can you expect to make consistent profits throughout all that nonsense?

You can't. Luckily, natural resource investing is the answer. They're just as easy to play as any other stock or option. But more importantly, they're safer because they don't follow the same rules of Wall Street. For example...

- A crooked accountant cannot fudge the price of corn...
- Soybeans will never have Q1 earnings fall below expectations...
- And a broker can't send natural gas plummeting by slapping it with a downgrade...

Just like any other investment, there is risk. But lately, my natural resource investments have proven themselves as the safest and most profitable way to increase your wealth in today's market environment. Best of all, this market is custom-made for my system for years to come!

Profit From Over 50 Years of Success

Winning in the game of natural resources is a combination of sound forecasting methods, careful research, pinpoint timing, well-placed contacts and good old-fashioned market knowledge. While I thrive on studying charts, researching historical price trends and keeping in touch with the market players, the one thing that gives me my biggest advantage is the more than 50 years of real-life experience my father passed down to me.

Of course, I can't reveal all the secrets I've learned in a short letter like this one. Nor can I explain the incredibly complex charting system that's the backbone of this service -- a system my father and I spent years perfecting.

But I can tell you that when you encounter a bull market in natural resources, like we have right now, there are four simple ways to profit off it.

One way is to buy Senior Resource Companies. They are the conservative way to play the overall commodity market. Another way is Natural Resource Mutual Funds. They offer the safest way to build long-term profits in commodities.

But since we go after the big gains, neither of these is how my Resource Trader Alert members profit. When it comes to the most explosive profits, look no further than Junior Resource Stocks and Commodities Options.

Junior Resource Stocks are the smaller companies that are more leveraged to the upside for rising commodity prices. They're not as stable as the senior companies... but when you invest wisely, they offer a tremendous bang for your buck. You'll see some examples in a minute.

Commodity Options are where you can make your biggest profits. In fact, most of the recommendations you've learned about today have come from this class of investments. Careful tracking and good timing can make you remarkable returns with commodity options alongside me and my Resource Trader Alert members.

But please don't get the wrong idea. Although Commodity Options offer you the highest returns, that doesn't mean Junior Resource stocks don't make you fantastic returns as well. They can. A few good examples are our recent Gold and Silver plays...

Why Natural Resources Are the Quickest Route to Big Profits

It was January 2001 when I told my members that gold stocks were racking up better investment returns than any other asset class. As it turned out, all 10 of the top-performing mutual funds last year were gold funds. But it wasn't until gold prices went soaring past $300 that industry analysts finally started taking a closer look.

By that time, my Resource Trader Alert members already had the opportunity to seize profits of 76%, 82%, 146%, 153%, 160% and 187% with gold-based stocks and options.

But as great as those gains were, our longer-term Silver plays were even better...

You may not know this, but historically speaking, silver is the one commodity that soars both during periods of extreme deflation and during rampant inflation. So, given the recent economic troubles, I recommended two separate silver plays... both of which ended up making massive profits.

Silver Standard -- 158% Profits

Ask yourself, " How many stock charts look like this lately?"

Despite the struggling stock market, our investment in Silver Standard Resources has been nothing short of remarkable. When I discovered SSRI, silver was around $4 an ounce. That meant Silver Standard had a resource base worth $1.2 billion... yet the company had a market capitalization of $42 million. The market valued SSRI at just 1/28th of the silver it owed!

As I explained to my readers, buying Silver Standard is a proxy for buying silver in the ground. And unlike the silver you buy from a dealer, there are no storage costs, commissions or shipping hassles. Best of all, there is tremendous leverage. A 25% rise in the price of silver could easily push the price of Silver Standard stock 100% or higher. So we bought in for $1.82 a share.

Over the course of the next several months, silver did exactly as we expected... it remained a constant winner despite troubled economic times. When the stock hit $4.70 a share, I figured it was time to take our money off the table... for 158% profits.

Pan American Silver Corp. -- 111% Profits

Our play on Pan American Silver was almost like Silver Standard's twin sister, only we held Pan American a little bit longer. We bought in June 2001 for $2.98 and sold a year later for $6.28... good for another 111% gain during tough economic times. The chart below tells the whole story...

In Case You're Thinking We've Had 17 Unusually Good Months...

By the way, if you think the past 17 months have been a fluke, they haven't been. Since we launched Resource Trader Alert back in the '90s, we've had nothing but a consistent history of success. In fact, many of the recommendations you've read about today were my recent winners... but not necessarily my most explosive winners. If you would like to hear about some of my top recommendations, look no further than Swiss Franc Calls...

145% in Four Weeks on Swiss Franc Calls

In August 2001, interest rate cuts and a soaring trade deficit were two strong indications of a reversal for the dollar. This presented a fantastic profit opportunity for Resource Trader Alert investors. To combat the declining dollar, I recommended December 63 Swiss Franc calls for $825.

Four weeks later, on Sept. 21, the calls we paid $825 for hit $2,025, and an immediate sell alert was issued locking in a 145% gain in just four weeks!

77% in Three Months on Silver Calls

Our play on December 2002 Silver calls back in June 2001 was another big winner. At the time of my recommendation, the $1,500 Silver Calls acted as a 'safe market play' to combat the liquidity crisis and deep recession. Little did I know that the tragic terrorist events of September 11 would send investors piling out of stock equities and into buying real assets, notably silver. In the midst of extreme market volatility, we sold our $1,500 Silver Calls for $2,660, a profit of just over 77%.

48% in Two Months on Natural Gas Calls

Our El Paso calls were another top recommendation. At the time of the play, a sluggish economy, moderate weather and rising inventories had severely depressed natural gas prices in the summer of 2001. In fact, natural gas futures had fallen to their lowest price in 21 months. But as I pointed out to Resource Trader Alert subscribers, the tech economy is an electricity hog, and given the elastic nature of natural gas, a strong economy would result in a demand snapback.

To profit off this snapback, we bought call options in El Paso Corporation, a Calgary-based natural gas company. At the time, El Paso Energy was down 50% from its 52-week high. But over the next few months, I expected higher natural gas prices to lift the stock above its previous high of $75 a share. Resource Trader Alert members bought October 50 El Paso Calls for $2.50... and sold them for $3.70 at the end of expiration... good for another quick 48% gain.

How a small, back-page article gave us 304% profits

Most likely, you missed what was one of the most profitable articles ever printed in The Wall Street Journal... Hidden behind an endless stream of war news, budget problems and the political machinations of the new Congress was, in my view, the biggest commodity story of the year: The winter drought in the American Great Plains and Western Corn Belt.

Last year, many Nebraska farmers received half their normal amount of water. This year, reported The Journal, they would get even less. Not surprisingly, last year's U.S. wheat crop was the smallest in 30 years. Without rain, this year's may not do much better. But it wasn't just Nebraska that was feeling the pinch. The drought appeared to be spreading eastward into the very heart of the Corn Belt. Minnesota was still cold as ever, but they reported a lot less snow. It was the same for Iowa and Wisconsin.

At the same time, stockpiles of U.S. grain -- especially wheat and soybeans-- were critically low. Armed with this information, I knew that if the lack of rain continued, the grain markets could explode. So I recommended buying soybean calls... which gave us a whopping 304% gain. That's the power of my

Resource Trader Alert! (Read on to learn how you can profit from the power of this service.)

The Most Profitable System Going...

That's three more plays -- three more winners. Had you taken a position worth $1,500 on each of the three plays listed above, your $4,500 investment would have ballooned into $8,550 in a few months time.

But enough about history...

Our winning trend continued into 2002 and has thus far in 2003. Yes, we've had some losers -- but take a look at our up-to-date track record of the past couple of years.

Of all the recommendations we've opened and closed since January 2002, we posted over 75% winners. And remember, of our winning recommendations...

- 22 plays gave our subscribers the opportunity to earn 50% profits or better
- 11 plays gave our subscribers an opportunity to earn 100% profits or better
- 5 plays gave our subscribers an opportunity to earn 150% profits or better.

The Profit Potential Is Enormous!

If it sounds boastful on my part, I apologize. My purpose in telling you about all these recent winners is just to make clear the tremendous potential for profits natural resources can bring you -- particularly in a market like this one. When you have the right advice, and when you use our simple ways to play today's bull market in natural resources, you'll have a serious edge.

That's why if you'd really like to make some money in this crazy up-and-down market, I suggest you take out a subscription to my service, Resource Trader Alert.

Following the recommendations in Resource Trader Alert is an excellent way to super-charge your returns... and boost your stalled profits. Start by taking a small amount of your cash -- say between $2,000 and $5,000 -- and begin following my recommendations as they come each week. As you've seen from the examples I've shown you, you don't need to risk a lot to get started. My positions typically cost between $450 to $750 to execute, but the profits can be quite substantial. And you can profit no matter what's happening on the market... whether it's up or down.

Once Again, Investing Is Profitable... and Fun!

But aside from the profits you can make -- trading alongside Resource Trader Alert is about as fun as investing can get! Imagine for a moment...

"Thanks for all of the good advice. Subscribing... is one of the best investment decisions I've ever made."

-- G. Wade (subscriber)

You get one of my recommendations via e-mail, and you immediately call your broker or execute your trade yourself. (In my alerts, I tell you everything you need to know -- right down to the symbol of the play I'm recommending.) Then, you turn off the financial channels... and market tickers... and simply follow my guidelines.

As the investment moves 'your way,' I send you update bulletins. As you get each one, your adrenaline pumps a little faster. Even though the stock market is stuck in the mud, you're watching your investments go up 20%... 30%... even 50% in a short period of time. Some get as high as 95%... 150%... or even 300% over the course of a few weeks' time!

Had you been a Resource Trader Alert subscriber the past 17 months, this is a thrill you would have experienced at least once every month. That's because out of my 41 recent recommendations, 31 of them were winners ... with almost all of them (97% of them) posting double-digit gains.

If you'd like to join us, here are the details...

I've told you throughout this letter how Resource Trader Alert works. It's incredibly easy. At least once per week, I'll send you my latest recommendation. Sometimes the alert will contain a new recommendation. Sometimes it'll simply update current positions. The thing is... you must be able to get my alerts quickly and act on them fast, because like any bull market, your degree of profits requires perfect timing as much as anything else.

I won't kid you -- my Resource Trader Alert isn't the cheapest service around. And quite frankly, it shouldn't be. This is a serious service for investors who are serious about making money right now. Having said that, the price to subscribe to Resource Trader Alert is $995 per year. Or you can sign up for two years of my service for only $1,795. And when you consider the level of profits we've taken, either price is far less than what many other advisory services charge that don't come close to the success we've enjoyed. So in that regard, it's a very good bargain.

"Test Drive" Resource Trader Alert for 60 Days... Risk-Free

If you're still apprehensive, you can elect to test out my Resource Trader Alert by paying on a quarterly basis. If you choose this option, your credit card will be billed $250 every three months, until you decide to cancel.

The way I figure it, the three-month subscription price is about equal to the half the profits you could make on any single-position play. So using the last 17 months as an example, the first success goes half to you, half to me -- and the other 30 winners are yours to keep. I think that's fair...

Something else makes this offer a no-risk proposition...

Your satisfaction is 100% guaranteed. By that, I mean if after the first 60 days you don't like what you see, I'll make sure that you get a full refund of every cent you've paid. No questions asked... no hassle to you at all. And even if you exceed your 60-day grace period, you can always ask for a pro-rated refund for the remaining months on your subscription. I feel that if Resource Trader Alert isn't for you, why make things difficult?

Let me quickly recap everything you get as a Resource Trader Alert member:

- You'll get the benefit of over 50 years of natural resource experience coming to you at least once each week...
- You'll get instant profit opportunities that aren't found with conventional stock trading...
- You'll learn the new art of natural resources, one that's both perfect and safe for current market conditions...
- You'll have 24-hour access to our member's only Web site, where you can review past recommendations, updates and open positions...
- And to top it all off, I'll give you a full refund after 60 days if you decide the system isn't right for you.
