agent...and that you'll rarely see advertised in the popular travel press...

Dear Traveler,

I'd like to invite you today, on behalf of a famous film director, a movie star, a captain of industry and many more of the world's top vacation home owners...to be guests at their private and exclusive vacation retreats - for much less than you might think...

You can be king of the castle...or mistress of the manor...and enjoy unforgettable and rewarding stays at: Francis Ford Coppola's private jungle reserve in Belize...Merv Griffin's Irish Manor House (said to be most beautiful in all Ireland)...an artist's medieval tower in Orvietto, Italy...a 300-year old wine cave in Santorini, Greece...a 17th century mill on a river in France...Robert Redford's ranch in the Wasatch mountains in Utah...Richard Branson's 74-acre Necker Island in the Caribbean...your own private barge moored on one of Amsterdam's picturesque canals...a historic Monk's rest-house in Italy...

These are just some of the exclusive and unusual vacation getaways you can enjoy...for much less than you might think.

Problem is: Most of these exclusive retreats don't advertise, so how do you find out about them?

I'll tell you in just a moment...but first let me tell you about a magical 10,000 acre barrier island just off the coast of Georgia that you can enjoy for as little as $256 per person a night...

Escape to Your Own Private Paradise for $256 a night!

When travellers come to Savannah, Georgia, they'll often book a homogenized room for $300 a night at a nearby chain hotel. Most go away, never knowing, that just a stones throw away...lies one of the world's most stunning unspoilt private islands...where you can rent your own romantic cottage and have your every meal and every whim catered to for less than a room at a chain hotel...

This 10,000-acre barrier island...accessible only by boat...has been virtually untouched for centuries. As one visitor said, it's the 'most amazing, primeval place I've ever seen.' You walk through ancient forests of moss-covered oaks, majestic pines and giant magnolia trees...follow winding rivers and shimmering tidal creeks...cycle along old dirt roads...ride a horse across an incredible 7-mile private beach, it is one of the finest in Georgia (yet mention it to anyone and they'd never know it by name). Your heart will skip a beat at the beauty of it...

And on this magical little island, instead of a small cookie-cutter hotel room...you'll get to stay in luxury at your own uniquely styled, century-old bungalow or cottage...complete with a fireplace and antique furnishings. Plus you'll have your every meal and whim catered to even so far as having the first-class southern chefs pack you a picnic basket of fresh seafood and southern specialties...so you can enjoy a lunch (or even a moon-lit dinner) on the beach under the stars - if you so desire! And you can relish all this for as little as $256 a night...and you'll come away, having had one of the most rewarding and most extraordinary vacation experiences of your life...

Compare that to a chain hotel...where the room alone can cost you $300 a night...and where there's always an outstretched palm...and where the surcharges keep accumulating...

The owner's family has been welcoming friends and guests to this secret little island for almost a century now.

And this is just one of the extraordinary vacation retreats that you'll never hear about from your travel agent and that you'll rarely see advertised in the popular travel press...

There are many more...

You can rent a thatched cottage near Oxford...a Mediterranean villa on a private cove in Spain...a log cabin in the Canadian Rockies...a penthouse apartment in Rome...a 17th Century Venetian mansion...a beach house in Oceanside, California...a romantic studio loft in Paris...a 600-year-old stone cottage in the heart of England's Chipping Campden...a mountain-top cabin in Belize - even your own private island in the Caribbean or Mediterranean if you like!

But if these exclusive vacation retreats don't advertise, how do you find out about them?

A Revolution in the World of Luxury Travel!

Twenty-five years ago, a Sloan School Graduate, named Mike Thiel, got tired of consulting for the Fortune 500 corporations and started a unique organization called Hideaways International...and created a revolution in the world of luxury travel...

It was around this time that Mike bought his own villa vacation home in New England. This was a place that he and his family would love to retreat to when they wanted to get away. He loved this luxury escape so much that he began to explore the idea of luxury escapes elsewhere...

He started to investigate private villas that he and his family and friends could rent in other parts of the world. But he found them very difficult to track down. Travel agents, travel guides and foreign newspapers could only tell him about big chain hotels.

But he didn't want to stay in a homogenized hotel room. And it wasn't just because of the lack of privacy, space and character. He also felt the high cost of a hotel room was just not worth it. He wanted to stay in traditional homes: Mexican haciendas...14th Century French farmhouses...Irish manors...medieval castles even a Thai hut. He wanted to experience something different...something memorable...

He knew private circles of the rich and famous exchanged villas and enjoyed these types of vacations all the time so why couldn't other discerning travelers?

That's why he created Hideaways International.

Hideaways International was the world's first global community of discriminating travelers whose mission was to uncover this hidden world of exclusive vacation options.

It's goal was to match villa vacation home owners with villa vacationers from all over the world so discriminating travelers could investigate and take advantage of these exclusive vacations just as easily as if they were booking a room at the Sheraton. It would put Hideaways Members directly in touch with the private owners of these exotic homes so you wouldn't have to deal with agents and so you could avoid commissions and middlemen fees. It would also use a system to vet sub-par vacations and offer to its members only a selection of the very best.

For 25 years now Hideaways has been attracting sophisticated travelers from all over the world. This savvy network of seasoned travelers share opinions, vacation tips,

'A Passport to Fantasy'

Hideaways offers you fantasy vacations - but at prices far less than you might imagine.

They turn memorable into unforgettable.

It's why many of their Members have been with Hideaways since the beginning, like Nick and Joanna Vergoth from Chicago...who told Hideaways:

owner and founder of Hideaways International, and came away very impressed with his company, which specializes in private home rentals around the world.'

Nick and Joanna joined almost 25 years ago and have stayed at Hideaways properties at least once (usually twice) a year since. From California to Colorado, Hawaii to Costa Rica, New Orleans to Greece, Jamaica to London, and Paris to Italy.

Another long-term Member wrote:

'You have expanded my horizons, and that's something no one can put a price tag on.'

Even the editors of many of the world's leading newspapers have recommended Hideaways, including the New York Times, U.S News and World Report, Travel and Leisure, Conde Nast Traveler, The Los Angeles Times, and Frommer Travel Guides, just to name a few.

Every week Hideaways gets many letters from satisfied Members who've just returned from a vacation inspired by Hideaways. They pass along the tips they receive to other Members on the pages of Hideaways Guide, Hideaways newsletter, and on-line at Members' Forum, underscoring the feeling of community.

Before I tell you more about the specific benefits and privileges you'll get as a Hideaways Member let me tell you more about what makes a Hideaways Member different...

Hideaways Members are not novice travelers on their first trip to Europe. They want unusual, unforgettable experiences.

Hideaways Members are not novice travelers on their first trip to Europe. They are seasoned travelers - whose vacation time is important to them. Hideaways Members are looking for the vacation road less traveled. They don't like homogenized hotel rooms or packaged tours. They prefer to vacation like a local. They want unusual, unforgettable experiences. They don't want to eat at the overpriced and substandard tourist restaurants. They want to eat where the 'locals' frequent. They're not averse to being extravagant...but they don't want to throw money away just for the sake of it. They want to know their extravagances are going to be worth it! They want the cultural...the historical...the adventure...the glamour!

In a world where vacations have become as manufactured as hamburgers...Hideaways Members are looking for something a little less cookie-cutter.

They want to avoid mass tourism - and all the traps that come with it.

Transform Your Next Trip

When Hideaways Members go to New York, they prefer to take a private apartment or a suite at a boutique hotel rather than stay at one of the big-name hotels. A stay at the Plaza or the Waldorf Astoria is nice...but there's an exceptional new boutique hotel called The Library...where you can enjoy an individually designed suite with charm and character for less than a standard room at the Plaza. Plus it's the new haunt for today's best writers and artists...and is considered by many to be 'the place to stay.'

Besides, at The Library -

A Better Way to Experience Tuscany

The average tourist spends just a few days in Tuscany. He might stay at the Best Western in Florence (227 euros a night) or the Sofitel (352 euros a night). He'll go to the Uffizi and the Bargello museums...see the Duomo...wait in long lines. If he's lucky he might get into a nice restaurant - though the best ones will be booked - and the real traditional off-the-beaten path local trattorias will be hard to find. Just a few days in Tuscany can be very expensive. You could easily spend a few thousand dollars.

But there's an infinitely better way to experience Tuscany...and it need not cost you as much...

Hideaways guests pay

Or when Hideaways Members visit London - even though they admit the Savoy is very nice - they think it's a little pricey. They prefer to stay at a little boutique hotel just around the corner from Harrods. It sits on a quiet tree-lined cul-de-sac...where it seems little has changed over the centuries...

Here, at Beaufort House, you will be transported back to another era. You'll enjoy a private, exclusive escape right in the heart of London...where everything will seem almost too good to be true. And just because you're a Hideaways Member you'll enjoy a little extra special treatment...

You can rent your own private annex of a 5th century castle where Leonardo da Vinci used to stay. The castle sits in the Chianti region, not far from Florence, and enjoys panoramic views over the vineyards and valleys of Tuscany. In the mornings you and your partner can enjoy breakfast on your own private terrace as you watch the Tuscan countryside come to life. You can watch the grape and olive pickers working in the surrounding hills...shop for groceries in the local market town of Greve...buy some cheese, local wine, wild boar and fresh vegetables...enjoy a concert or restaurant in Florence...

At this magical 5th century castle annex you can relax and soak in the real Italy. What's more you can enjoy an entire week here for less than it'd cost you to spend three days at the Sofitel.

These are just some of the wonderful experiences Hideaways will introduce you to. To join just click here. A whole new world of luxury travel will be open to you.

And Beaufort House of Knightsbridge and The Library in New York are just two of the top boutique hotels where Hideaways Members enjoy special privileges...

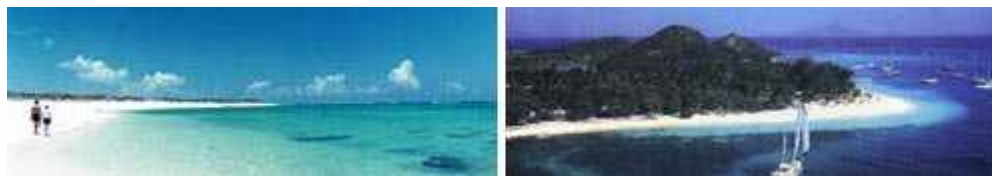

Hideaways Members enjoy special discounts and privileges along with VIP perks.

In fact, Hideaways Members enjoy special discounts and privileges along with VIP perks like early check-in, complimentary meals and/or activities, and late checkout at many of the world's finest villas and boutique hotels.

When you join Hideaways, you'll gain access to The Hideaways Collection. This collection is a handpicked selection of the world's finest villas and boutique hotels. Each property has been personally inspected by Hideaways. You'll explore villas and boutique hotels in many of the world's greatest cities, including San Francisco, Geneva, Venice, Palm Beach, Paris, Bangkok, New York City, Madrid, and more. At each of these properties you'll enjoy special treatment...and at many, you'll receive members-only savings...

Explore the Caribbean's Best-Kept Travel Secret

When you travel to the Caribbean as a Hideaways Member, you do so as only a small group of the most refined travelers have done before.

While the casinos, the nightlife and the hustle and bustle on St. Maarten and the Cayman Islands is nice, Hideaways Members prefer the road less traveled...

When Hideaways Members visit the Caribbean there's a beautiful and exclusive little island they like to stay on that few tourists ever get to explore. It's called St. Barth.

As travel expert Arthur Frommer said when he described Hideaways on his TV show: '...for the traveler who doesn't like mass production...who doesn't like going into big and impersonal hotels, who believes small is beautiful...'

Few places in the world could fulfill that promise better than St. Barth.

A small commuter plane will take you from St. Maarten to the small rugged island of St. Barth. And on St. Barth you'll find treasures the average Caribbean tourist will never find: like the Hotel Carl Gustaf...where you can enjoy your own suite with sundeck and your own private dip pool, which overlooks the red roofs and quaint yacht-filled harbor of Gustavia.

Everything on St. Barth is Lilliputian, from the airport to the narrow, winding roads, its white-crescent beaches, its dainty ginger-bread trimmed cottages, its French villages, its many privately owned boutique hotels and its world-class restaurants.

St. Barth is a far cry from the popular Caribbean islands - yet you can do almost everything on this little island that you can do on the well-traveled islands. You can dive, snorkel, sail, fish, surf, and hike. Plus it boasts some of the best accommodation and restaurants in the entire Caribbean. It has all the advantages of the popular Caribbean islands - but none of the disadvantages.

St. Barth is skipped over in most guidebooks. Only a small group of the most refined travelers know of her secrets...

Hideaways explores many of these exclusive secret travel destinations...it also uncovers many of the world's most unusual adventures...

Traverse the Amazon on an Explorer Ship

Hideaways Members are not averse to the big cruise ships and the popular Caribbean and Mediterranean excursions...however they prefer to explore the lesser-traveled waterways on smaller more specialized vessels, like yachts, riverboats, and explorer ships...

You'll explore lesser-traveled waterways throughout Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Smaller ships and vessels have the advantage of being able to follow unusual itineraries. They can dock in any port. Their routes are not limited to the oceans. These vessels can venture well beyond mainstream shipping lanes. They can traverse rivers and canals throughout Europe, Asia, and Africa. They can sail down the Nile, over the Great Barrier Reef, through famous rivers in Europe, down the Amazon, up Norway's craggy coastline, round the Galapagos Islands, and dock in obscure ports on small islands everywhere.

Trains, Planes and Even a Dogsled

And you're not limited to just ships. Hideaways can introduce you to some of the world's most fascinating adventures. In fact, Mike has spent the last few decades enjoying all types of unusual adventures. He's traveled by hot-air balloon, turn-of-the-century steam train, luxury cruise ship, vintage DC3 airplane...even by dogsled...in his search for unusual vacations. He's captained a barge on the canals of Alsace and driven a four-wheel drive over Dubai's giant sand-hills. He's stayed in staffed beachfront villas, downtown pied-a-terres, guest ranches, English cottages - even a rustic tree-house built over the water in Tahiti. Mike can introduce you to all these fascinating travel experiences, too...and you'll enjoy special discounts on many of them...

Discover the World's Best Romantic Getaways

You'll learn about the most romantic vacation lodgings in the world.

One of the most popular requests Hideaways receives is for recommendations of the best romantic getaways...so every year Hideaways names its top choices for the most romantic vacation lodgings in the world. This year, a Franciscan Monastery overlooking the red roofs of Florence...a boutique hotel in New York...a beach club on Palm Island...a Mexican villa that lies between a white sandy beach and a lush lagoon...and an ancient Austrian inn where Mozart and Goethe once stayed were among the winners...

Enjoy the Truest Hideaways of All!

The truest hideaways, perhaps, are the ones only accessible by boat. Imagine a beautiful quiet resort or boutique hotel far from the madding crowds in Venice, Cancun and the popular Caribbean capitals that can only be accessed by boat. What could be more romantic? Hideaways will reveal these secret secluded places to you...

You'll enjoy gondola and riverboat rides through little-travelled canals and waterways in Europe and the Caribbean. Ride in a launch through the mangrove-lined creeks of Guanaja a charming unspoilt island in Honduras's Bay Islands. As you enter into a wide turquoise bay, you'll glimpse a glorious Spanish mansion sitting grandly on a 70-acre secluded estate. You can stay in a beautifully decorated guestroom here with tiled floors, marble baths, native woods and a private terrace for as little as $110 a night...and as a Hideaways Member you'll get extra-special treatment...

Hideaways will also introduce you to the top resorts in the world for horseback riding, golf, skiing, sailing, fishing, hiking, tennis...where, again, you'll receive substantial discounts and special treatment...

A member from Oak Brook, Illinois, recently wrote:

'Katia is to be commended for her assistance to a novice in renting homes and cars and traveling in Italy. Her suggestion that we fly into smaller airports (Naples, rather than Rome) made everything, including picking up rental cars, so much easier.'

Other members have written:

'How lucky we were to have Claudia help us book an apartment in Paris. Working with her convinced me that customer service is not dead! You feel like you really know and trust her to make your travel arrangements.' H.A., Palm Desert, CA

'Thanks for your help, Kathy. You have made this vacation accommodation process a breeze. It has been a pleasure to work with you. I appreciate your expertise and professionalism.' S.V., St Louis, MO

You can save hundreds - even thousands - on your next vacation by becoming a Hideaways Member.

You're probably thinking that access to all these exclusive benefits is going to cost a lot. But Hideaways Membership fees are extremely modest.

A Limited-time Offer for Our Readers

I've asked Mike (in exchange for introducing Hideaways to you) to extend his special introductory rate on Hideaways Membership to our readers.

The regular membership rate is just $145 - which is a mere fraction of what Hideaways Membership will mean to you in real terms. But for a limited time only Mike has agreed to let you join - and take advantage of all the benefits and privileges awarded other Hideaways Members - for the very low introductory rate of just $99. That's a $46 saving.

A very small price to ensure you never travel like the masses again.

What's more Hideaways will also send you two special bonus reports FREE:

FREE BONUS #1 Villa Vacations Made Easy (a $14.95 value): SAVE up to 50% on your next vacation. Villa Vacations Made Easy will show you how. For example, many villas slash their prices in the off-season. And Hideaways Members believe the best time to visit many popular destinations is in the off-season. Italy and Greece, for example, are much nicer in the fall and the winter. It's not as hot...the beaches and streets are far less crowded...and the best news is many villas reduce their prices - often to half of what they charge in the overcrowded very hot summers. Plus often if you stay longer in a villa the price drops dramatically. Villa Vacations Made Easy will show you how to vacation better - and longer - for less!

FREE BONUS #2 An additional full-color Hideaways Guide (a $25 value). This is a free copy of Hideaways' previous guide to villa vacation homes, boutique hotels and adventure travel opportunities

- so you can begin to investigate immediately all the wonderful and exciting vacation opportunities I've mentioned in this letter.

I'm sure you'll agree this is a unique opportunity...one that can not only save you money - but open you up to a whole new world of fantasy vacations ordinary mortals will only ever dream about.

What's more, you'll probably make back your membership fee many times over just from the savings you'll make on your next magical vacation!

To join just click on the button at the end of this letter...and this whole new world of exclusive vacation opportunities and benefits will be open to you instantly. But in case you have any doubts about a membership to Hideaways, let me tell you about the special money-back guarantee Mike's willing to offer you...

Investigate a Whole New World of Vacation Opportunities - Risk-Free!

Mike is so confident that you'll get hooked on Hideaways that he's willing to let you join and investigate all Hideaways has to offer for two whole months before you decide. He'll let you review their vacations, their publications, their travel services - even book a holiday with them and take advantage of their excellent Members-only discounts - and if you decide Hideaways isn't for you - Mike will refund your money in full! No questions asked.

What's more he'll even let you keep your two bonus reports Villa Vacations Made Easy and Hideaways Guide - no matter what you decide.

In a world going crazy - with wars...accounting scandals...rising unemployment rates...political instability...market volatility...work stress...and financial stress - the perfect escape is more important now than ever. That's why there's never been a better time to join Hideaways.

Your 'Passport to Fantasy' awaits you...
