

This conference is mainly held for the benefit of Sovereign Society and Oxford Club members. That's why you're receiving this early invitation. We want you to have first opportunity to reserve your exclusive place at this conference.

Out of 50,000 members worldwide there is only room for 200 attendees - so in order to avoid disappointment please book early.

We have 20+ of the top financial experts in the world who are willing to share their latest strategies with you.

You'll learn about revolutionary new annuities with critical currency features that can enhance your annuity returns over a lifetime. Plus, you'll learn new developments in e-banking, second passports, tax havens, offshore real estate opportunities, foreign currencies, tax strategies, privacy solutions, high-yielding offshore investment strategies and much more.

With the current volatility of the U.S. stock market and the current strength of the U.S. dollar there has never been a better time to start exploring markets, currencies and financial options overseas.

Our speakers will show you how to do so, using some of the most reputable offshore institutions in the world.
